Social and Personal

MR. and Mrs. E. T. D. Myers, Jr., of 215 West Franklin Street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances Conquahou, to James Macdonald Wellford, Miss Myers is a granddaughter of the late Major Edward D. T. Myers, and her mother was a Miss Adams, of Baltimore. Mr. Wellford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Beverley Randolph Wellford, also of Richmond.

House-Tanner Wedding.
Quantities of lovely white flowers will decorate the Tanner home, at 1106 Floyd Avenue, this evening at half-after 6 o'clock, when Miss Helen Louise Tanner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Tanner, will become the bride of Hugh Fontaine Rose, the Rev. Louis B. Warren performing the ceremony. The wedding is of much interest to Richmond society, although it will be celebrated very quietly with only the relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom present at the ceremony.

Miss Cora Winston Younger will be the bride's maid of honor, and Clai-borne R. Watkins will be best man. Mr. Tanner will give his daughter away.

Mr. Rose and his bride will make their home in Richmond on their return from their wedding trip.

Williams' Allen.
Another wedding to be celebrated this afternoon, in which society here is very much interested, is that of Miss Hattie Josephine Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Allen, of White Gate, and Wirth Carrington Williams, son of Attorney-General and Mrs. Samuel W. Williams, of this city. The wedding will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock, in the Presbyterian Church at White Gate, the Rev. Beverly performing the ceremony. White and yellow flowers, autumn leaves and lighted candles will decorate the altar and chancel of the church, and Miss Lucy Williams, of Wytheville, will play the "Bridal Chorus" and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." The bride will enter the church with her sister, Miss Bessie Allen, who will be her maid of honor. Her wedding gown is fashioned of heavy white satin, embroidered in pearls and trimmed with some rare old lace. Her train will be arranged with a bandeau of orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor will wear a gown of pale green satin, and will carry an armful of white roses. Samuel W. Williams, Jr., brother of the groom, will act as best man.

The bridesmaids, who include Misses Louise Williams, Marjorie Miller, Vera Bane, Kate Bulman and Bettie Fanning, will wear dainty lingerie frocks, with corn-colored sashes and short white tulle veils. They will carry yellow chrysanthemums. The groomsmen will be Allen Brown, John Bell Williams, Guy E. Dunn, Garland Stone and Andrew Newberry, and the ushers will be Miller Allen, Booth Williams, Robert Bane and Neil Williams.

Immediately following the ceremony a dinner and reception will be given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Williams and his bride will spend several weeks in Richmond and other Eastern cities.

Guests from a distance to attend the ceremony are: Attorney-General and Mrs. S. W. Williams, Miss Lucy Williams, Neil Williams, Garland Stone, of Wytheville; Miss Louise Williams, of Richmond; Miss Kate Bulman, of Roanoke; Allen Brown, of Petersburg, and others.

For Miss Archer.
One of the first big debutante receptions of the season will be given by Mr. and Mrs. William Wharton Archer at their home, 505 East Franklin Street, when Miss Minnie Archer will be presented to Richmond society.
The reception will be given on Tuesday evening, October 31, and only the younger members of society have been invited. The cards of Mrs. Edmund C. Archer and Miss Carrie Archer are in circulation.

At the Woman's Club.
People in Richmond are very much interested in the announcement that Miss Maria Lee Goodwyn, pianist, and Miss Polly Robins, soprano, will give a joint recital at the Woman's Club next Monday afternoon. Both are musicians of note, and the club parties will be crowded with members and their guests for the occasion.

Leaves Town.
Mrs. Lucian H. Cooke, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James D.
Crump at the Chesterfield for the past week-end, left Monday night for Petersburg, where she joined Mr. Cooke on his private car for a trip to Virginia Beach.

Mr. Cooke was entertained at several dinners during her stay in the city, and Mrs.
M. C. Patterson gave a very delightful tea in her honor at her country place near town Saturday afternoon. Mrs.
Cooke will not return to Roanoke for some time.

Meetings To-Day.
The Confederate Memorial Literary Society will meet this morning at 11 o'clock in the Confederate Museum.
All members are asked to be present at this meeting.

The executive board of the Virginia Home for Incurables will meet this morning at 11 o'clock at the home to complete arrangements for Donation Day, Monday, October 31. All members of the board are urged to attend as much important business is to be discussed.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club.
The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met on Monday evening with Miss Margaret Morson at 528 West Grace Street.
Four tables were engaged and the highest score was made by Mrs. Bland Spotswood Smith and Mrs. William Randolph Robins. Mrs. Harris Wester will be hostess of the club on next Monday evening at her apartment at the Chesterfield.

Art Club Notes.
The regular Tuesday afternoon lecture given at the Art Club of Richmond, Wednesday afternoon, was Miss Maria Blair speaking on Watts, the painter. An important preliminary meeting and the history of painting class will be held on Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the clubhouse.
As it has been found impracticable to hold this class on Friday at 4:30 throughout the season, this meeting is called to ascertain what other time will be most suitable for all the members. Outline study will be discussed at this meeting, and this class is a member's privilege.

Attractive Card Party.
Mrs. William Miller Calvert entertained at cards on Saturday afternoon of last week at her home in Woodstock. Miss Fannie Mican and Miss Cary Funkhouser were awarded prizes for the highest score and luncheon was served at the card tables. The entire lower floor of the Calvert home was decorated in white chrysanthemums and autumn leaves.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. John W. Quarles, of 1111 North Thirty-sixth Street, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn, to W. W. Wadley, Jr., Tuck. The wedding will be celebrated some time in the month of November.

Approaching Wedding.
Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Banks for the marriage of their daughter, Bertha Winfred, and Arthur Well, of this city, the ceremony to take place on Tuesday evening, November 7, at 8:30 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, 525 South Pryor Street, Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Well is a brother of Police Commissioner Cliff Well, of this city, and a number of Richmond people will go to Atlanta for the wedding. Mr. Well and his bride will make their home here on their return from their honeymoon.

Wedding Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Creed Davis celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their marriage on Saturday evening, October 21, in their home, 528 North Boulevard. The house was elaborately decorated with palms and ferns and pink roses, and many friends were present to extend their congratulations. An orchestra played during the evening, and supper was served at 10:30 o'clock. Miss Fannie Davis presided at the punch-bowl, and some very handsome presents were received.

In and Out of Town.
Miss Virginia Whitley, of Baltimore, who has been a guest of Mrs. Fred Soddy on West Franklin Street, is now visiting Mrs. Buford.

Miss Josephine Sizer has moved to 1701 Park Avenue, where she will spend this winter.

Miss Marrie Davis, of the University of Virginia, is a guest of Dr. E. J.

TRIP UP RAPPANNOCK.

Vanderbilt Party Delighted With Scenery—Catching up Russians.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Fredericksburg, Va., October 24.— One of the Vanderbilts from New York and two friends with a party in their private yacht, "Scorpion," who left here last Friday intending to go to Norfolk and from there to New York, were so charmed with the scenery along the Rappahannock River that when they reached the mouth of the river instead of going on to Norfolk they concluded to come back up the Rappahannock, reaching here yesterday. Mr. Vanderbilt and his friends came from here by rail direct to New York, and the yacht left here on its way to New York.

Alexander Chernogov, Peter Levitzky and John Kerlish, three Russians, came here and made complaint to United States Commissioner Charles D. Foster against the captain of the yacht boat, The Leach, claiming they were induced to board the boat in Baltimore and made to work, afterwards were put ashore on the Potomac River in Stafford county, near this city, without pay. They walked to this city, where they are being detained.

W. G. Peterson, a Confederate veteran of Company B, Third South Carolina Volunteers, Kershaw's brigade, Longstreet's Corps, was a recent visitor here. During the battle of Fred-ricksburg while here with his brigade on Marye's Heights and at "Brompton," Mr. Peterson was one of the few who escaped who was badly wounded, and he went to Marye's Heights on this trip and had his photograph taken on the exact spot where he was wounded nearly forty-nine years ago. He was wounded December 13, 1862.

SCHOOLS AT SALISBURY
CLOSES FOR TWO WEEKS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Salisbury, N. C., October 24.—For fear of spreading of scarlet fever in Salisbury the Salisbury graded schools were closed yesterday for two weeks by order of the Mayor and school board. The action was taken upon the advice of the Rowan county board of health, and was recommended that all Sunday schools as well as day schools be closed for a few weeks. All persons under eighteen years of age are debarred from the moving-picture shows and other places of amusement. Street cars and other public conveyance will be thoroughly fumigated.

Spends Day in Norfolk.
Norfolk, Va., October 24.—Stephen Furness, managing director of the Furness-Withy Company, of Hartlepool, England, which operates more than 100 ocean steamers, was in Norfolk today. He took a trip around the harbor and noted the port facilities, besides calling at the company's branch office here. He left here for Savannah, where the company also has a branch office.

ELECTORAL BOARD SELECTS JUDGES

Officers for Election of November 7 Chosen for Every Precinct.

Announcement is made by the City Electoral Board of the judges and clerks for the election in this city on November 7. Sundry changes are made from the previous list, due to deaths, removals and resignations. As there is no opposition this year to any Democratic nominee, these officials will have but little to do, the voting being in all probability, very light.

The Electoral Board, which chooses all election officers is composed of Dr.
John H. Hinchman, chairman; John P.
Leary, secretary, and T. Coleman Wortham. It also selected the commissioners of election, who will meet on the second day after the election to canvass the returns from the precincts.
They see that they are in proper form, tabulate the results and make the proper certification to the clerk of the Hustings Court.

Election officers are as follows:
City Ward.

WOULD TAKE BOOK
TO TELL TROUBLES

Carrsville Lady Says She Laid Awake At Night Because of Her Troubles.

Carrsville, Ky.—Mrs. F. E. Cossey, of this town, says: "I had been afflicted for nearly six years with womanly troubles, and would suffer so much every month!
It would take a book to tell what I have suffered in that time.

I got so I could not sleep at night from nervousness. I had four different doctors to treat me, but they could not help.
When I took Cardui it relieved me at once. I can't praise it enough.

I hardly know how to tell you what Cardui has done for me. I have taken about seven bottles, and nothing else I ever took gave me such relief.

All my friends know how I had it, and how Cardui has helped me in many different ways."

Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients, which act particularly on the delicate womanly system, building up health and strength where it is most needed.

During the past 50 years it has helped thousands of ladies afflicted with just such troubles as those from which Mrs.
Cossey suffered.

It is, therefore, a remedy that you can feel confidence in. Its merit is guaranteed by years of success.

Don't experiment. Take Cardui.
